1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 ABOUT QL

The story of QL Resources Berhad began in the early 1980s when Dr Chia Song Kun and family formed what was to become today's diversified Group.

Beginning with a small-scale distribution network for animal feed raw materials, the business grew to become a one-stop distribution centre and a significant regional integrated livestock farming player.

QL diversified into the fisheries sector through the development of a marine-based manufacturing chain. Starting with fishmeal and working up to higher-value surimi, the division is now considered the largest producer and manufacturer of both products in Asean countries.

The Group also moved into palm oil, which is seen as a profitable growth area for the future. From a foothold in crude palm oil milling the move was widened through the ownership and management of plantations in Malaysia and Indonesia.

Today QL has a coherent, complementary set of businesses with a combined objective: to add value to our broad, resource-based Group.

2. PURPOSE OF BOARD CHARTER

The Board of QL recognises the importance of adopting high standards of corporate governance throughout the Group as a fundamental part of discharging its responsibilities to protect and enhance shareholders' value and financial performance of the Group.

As such, the Board has outlined the Company's corporate governance policy in the form of a Board Charter that defines the respective roles, responsibilities and authorities of the Board, both individually and collectively, and of management in setting direction, management and control of the organisation.

The purpose of this Board Charter is to document the policies upon which the Board has decided to meet its legal and other responsibilities.

This Charter is designed to provide guidance and clarity for Directors and Management regarding the roles and responsibilities of the Board and its Committees, the requirements of Directors in carrying out their stewardship role and in discharging their duties towards the Company as well as the Board's operating practices.

*(MCCG Practice
2.1)*

3. DEFINING GOVERNANCE ROLES

3.1 THE ROLE OF THE BOARD

The Board is ultimately responsible for establishing all strategies and policies relating to the running of the Company.

The Board's role is to govern the Company rather than to manage it. In governing the Company, the Directors must act in the best interests of the Company as a whole. It is the role of senior management to manage the Company in accordance with the direction and delegations of the Board and the responsibility of the Board to oversee the activities of management in carrying out these delegated duties.

The Board reserves a formal schedule of matters for its decision to ensure that the direction and control of the Group is firmly in its hands. Details of these are set out in Appendix A.

*(MCCG Practice
2.1)*

The Board shall establish an internal audit function, which is independent of the activities it audits, and identify a head of internal audit who reports directly to the Audit Committee.

(MMLR Paragraph 15.27)

The Board also seeks to ensure that the Company complies with all of its contractual, statutory and any other legal obligations, including the requirements of any regulatory body.

The principal responsibilities of the Board are:

*(MCCG Practice
1.1)*

- to review and adopt strategic plans, addressing the sustainability of the Group's business;
- to oversee the conduct of the Group's businesses and evaluate whether or not the businesses are being properly managed;
- to identify principal business risks faced by the Group and ensure the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks;
- to consider and implement succession planning, including appointing, training, fixing the compensation of and, where appropriate, replacing members of the Board and Senior Management;
- to develop and implement an investor relations programme or shareholder communications policy for the Company;
- to review the adequacy and the integrity of the Group's internal control systems and management information systems, including systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines;
- to promote good corporate governance culture together with Senior Management within the Company for reinforcing ethical, prudent and professional behaviour; and
- to review, challenge and decide on Management's critical proposals for the Company, and oversee its implementation by Management.

3.2 THE ROLE OF INDIVIDUAL DIRECTOR

Director is required to be aware of the legal parameters that define his duties, broadly these includes:

- Duty to act in good faith and must act honestly in line with the Company's interests;
- Duty to exercise power for a proper purpose;
- Duty to exercise discretion properly and cannot fetter these powers by abdicating an independent exercise of such discretion and merely doing what is wanted by another person; and
- Duty to avoid conflict of interest and self-dealing through improper use of Company's property, information, position, corporate opportunity or competing with the Company by a director or an officer of a company unless consent or ratification is obtained in a general meeting.

Director should exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence according to the knowledge, skill and experience which may be reasonably be expected of him having the same responsibilities; and based on the facts, any additional knowledge, skill and experience which he has and may be guided as follows:

*(Bursa CG Guide

- Ensuring that the Company or Group has established an effective governance system and process, including compliance with regulatory requirements;
- Refraining from rushing into decision-making. Provide adequate time for deliberations and evaluations of transactional and financial matters;

- Require sufficient notice and distribution of board papers and explanatory appendices in advance of meetings;
- Convene supplemental meetings in response to requests for further information before the final decision;
- Make informed decisions based on the information provided and analysis and recommendations of the company's independent professional advisers;
- Ensuring that there is no undue pressure from dominant personalities or nominees of significant shareholders;
- Base reliance on others where there is sound basis for doing so; and
- Periodically test internal control and risk assessment systems set up for integrity and soundness.

3.3 THE ROLE OF EXECUTIVE AND NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Executive Directors are, as employees, involved in the day-to-day management of the Group. Non-Executive Directors are further classified as:

- those who have no direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the Company other than their Directors' fee, related emoluments and their "permitted" holdings of shares in the Company, i.e. Independent Non-Executive Directors; and
- those who are not employees of the Company or affiliated with it in any other way and are not involved in the day-to-day running of business but have pecuniary interest in the Company, either as shareholders or otherwise and whether direct or indirect, i.e. Non-Executive Directors.

(MMLR Paragraph 1.01)

Non-Executive Directors act as a bridge between Management, shareholders and other stakeholders. They provide the relevant checks and balances, focusing on shareholders' and other stakeholders' interests and ensuring that high standards of corporate governance are applied. Letters of appointment for Non-Executive Directors do not set out a fixed time commitment for board duties as the Board believes that the time required by the Non-Executive Directors may fluctuate depending on demands of the business and other events. However, it is expected that Non-Executive Directors shall allocate sufficient time to the Company to perform their duties effectively.

(Bursa CG Guide)

3.4 THE ROLE OF INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Independent Directors are essential for protecting the interests of shareholders and can make significant contributions to the Company's decision making by bringing in the quality of detached impartiality.

*(MCCG Practice
4.1)*

The MMLR emphasize that even if a person does not fall within any of the disqualifying indicators enumerated out in Paragraph 1.01, both the Director and the Board must give effect to the spirit, intention and purpose of the definition of an Independent Director. There must be a conscious application of the test of whether the said Director is able to exercise independent judgment and act in the best interests of the Company.

*(MMLR
Paragraph 1.01 &
its Practice Note)*

The attributes of collegial yet independent decision-making that must be vested in the Independent Director will be determined in part by the character of the individual and that of the whole ethos of the Board.

3.5 THE ROLE OF SENIOR INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR

QL has appointed a Senior Independent Director to whom concerns may be conveyed by shareholders and the public. The role of the Senior Independent Directors include:

The Chairman carries out a leadership role in the conduct of the Board and its relations to shareholders and other stakeholders. He is responsible for instilling good corporate governance practices, leadership and effectiveness of the Board as a whole.

*(MCCG Practice

3.7 THE ROLE OF GMD

The GMD is responsible for implementing the programme to achieve the Company's goals and vision for the future, in accordance with the strategies, policies, programs and performance requirements approved by the Board. The position reports directly to the Board.

(MCCG Practice 1.3)

The GMD's primary objective is to seek to achieve the ongoing success of the Company through being responsible for all aspects of the management and development of the Company. The GMD is of critical importance to the Company in guiding the Company to develop new and imaginative ways of winning and conducting business and must possess industry knowledge and credibility to fulfill the requirements of the role.

- Responsibility for proposals for major capital expenditure to ensure their alignment with corporation strategy and justification on economic grounds.

In discharging the above responsibilities, the GMD can delegate appropriate functions to any Executive Director.

3.8 BOARD COMMITTEES

As managing and controlling companies have become more complex and demanding, boards are resorting to committees to assist them in the discharge of their duties and responsibilities.

(MCCG Practice 2.1)

However, the existence of Board Committees does not diminish the Board's responsibility for the affairs of a company. Board can delegate powers to committees but such delegation should be subject to the following:

- Delegated authority in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association;
- Clearly established terms of reference, defining their responsibilities and authority, which are approved by the Board;
- The Board must supervise its delegation; and
- The Board must not merely adopt or rely on the committees' recommendations without proper assessment and testing or challenging the same.

Each committee's role should be spelt out in written terms of reference approved by the Board. Each year, the Board, through Nominating Committee, reviews the Board Committee's effectiveness. The Chairman of each Board Committee should assess the performance of individual member on annual basis. These assessments can be used to facilitate the Nominating Committee's evaluation of Board Committees' performance.

The Board has established the following Board Committees of which the role of the respective Board Committees are as summarised below:

3.8.1 EXCO

The key role of the Company Secretary is to provide unhindered advice and services for the Directors, as and when the need arises, to enhance the effective functioning of the Board and to ensure regulatory compliance.

4. COMPOSITION AND BOARD BALANCE

4.1 SIZE AND COMPOSITION

The Board currently consists of fourteen members; comprising one Executive Chairman, one GMD, three Executive Directors, six Independent Non-Executive Directors and three Alternate Directors.

The Board will ensure that its size and composition is optimum and well balanced, which is consistent with the size of the Group and its operation. At least 1/3 of the Board, or two (2) members, whichever higher, shall consist of Independent Non-Executive Directors. If the number of directors is not 3 or a multiple of 3, then the number nearest 1/3 must be used. The Company's Articles of Association allows a minimum of two (2) and maximum of fifteen (15) Directors.

*(MMLR
Paragraph
15.02)*

(Articles of Association 94)

The Board opined that its members should have wide ranging experience, skill, knowledge that add value to the Company and its Group. The qualifications for Board membership are the ability to make informed business decisions and recommendations; possesses an entrepreneurial talent for contributing to the creation of shareholder value; relevant experience, the ability to appreciate the wider picture of the Group's business; ability to ask probing operational related questions; high ethical standards; sound practical sense; and total commitment to furthering the interests of shareholders and achievement of the Group's goals. In addressing this, the Board shall consider recommendations by the Nominating Committee pertaining to nominees for directorship in the Company.

*(MCCG Practices
4.4 to 4.7)*

The Executive Directors in particular are responsible for implementing the policies and decisions of the Board, overseeing the operations as well as co-coordinating the development and implementation of business and corporate strategies.

The Independent Non-Executive Director shall be person of caliber, credibility and have the necessary skill and experience to bring independent judgment to the decision making of the Board and provide a capable check and balance for the executive directors as well as contribute significantly in areas such as policy and strategy, performance monitoring, allocation of resources as well as improving governance and controls.

The positions of Chairman and GMD are held by different individuals and there is a clear division of responsibilities of these individuals to ensure a balance of authority and power.

*(MCCG Practice

4.2 APPOINTMENT AND RE-ELECTION

The Board will consider and decide on the appointment of a new director upon appropriate recommendation from the Nominating Committee.

For the assessment and selection of Directors, the Nominating Committee shall consider objective criteria, merit with due regard of prospective Directors' character, experience, competence, integrity and time availability, as well as the following factors:

*(MCCG Practices
4.4 to 4.7 and
MMLR
Paragraph 15.08A)*

- industry skills, knowledge expertise, age, cultural background;
- professionalism;
- diversity;

- in the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the Board shall also evaluate the candidates' ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as are expected from Independent Non-Executive Directors.

Newly appointed director unless they have already attended the same, must attend Mandatory Accreditation Programme as prescribed by Bursa.

Pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association, one third (1/3) of the Board members are required to retire at every AGM and be subjected to re-election by shareholders.

(MMLR, MCGG 2007 & Articles of Association)

Newly appointed directors shall hold office until the next AGM and shall be subjected to re-election by the shareholders.

All Directors shall retire once every three (3) years but shall be eligible for re-election.

4.3 INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR

Independent Director is a person who is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could interfere with the exercise of independent judgment or the ability to act in the best interests of the Company.

The existence of Independent Directors on the Board by itself does not ensure the exercise of independent and objective judgment as independent judgment can be compromised by, amongst others, familiarity or close relationship with other board members.

(MCCG Practice 5.1)

Therefore, the Board with assistance from Nominating Committee undertakes to carry out annual assessment of the independence of its Independent Directors and focus beyond the Independent Director's background, economic and family relationships and consider whether the independent director can continue to bring independent and objective judgment to board deliberations.

The Listing Requirements emphasise that even if a person does not fall within any of the disqualifying indicators enumerated out in Paragraph 1.01 of the Listing Requirements, both the Director and the Board must give effect to the spirit, intention and purpose of the definition of an Independent Director. There must be a conscious application of the test of whether the said Director is able to exercise independent judgment and act in the best interests of the Company, for example, test of independence of mind and independence in appearance.

(Bursa CG Guide-3rd edition)

Nominating Committee will carry out the test of independence of mind on the Director to determine if the state of mind of the Director permits him/her to exercise independent judgment without being affected by influences that compromise objectivity; whereas the test of independence in appearance relates to the test that the Director is free from any personal, family or economic interests which would lead a third party to cast doubts on an independent director's objectivity.

The attributes of collegial yet independent decision-making that must be vested in the Independent Director will be determined in part by the character of the individual and that of the whole ethos of the Board.

The tenure of an Independent Director should not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine (9) years.

(MCCG Practice 4.2)

Upon completion of nine (9) years, an Independent Director may continue to serve the Board subject to the director's re-designation as a non-independent director and assessment of the Nominating Committee.

The Board must justify and seek shareholders' approval in the event it retains an Independent Director who has served in that capacity for more than nine (9) years; subject to the amendment of the Company's Articles, the Board must seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process in the event it retains the Independent Director who has served in that capacity after the twelfth (12) years.

(MCCG Practice 4.2)

4.4 THE BOARD'S RELATIONSHIP WITH SHAREHOLDERS AND STAKEHOLDERS

(MCCG Practices 11.1)

The Board shall maintain an effective communications policy that enables both the Board and Management to communicate effectively with shareholders, stakeholders and the general public.

It is the role of the Board to ensure that the AGM and Extraordinary General Meeting ("EGM") of the Company are conducted in an efficient manner and serve as crucial mechanisms in shareholder communications. Key ingredients behind this include the supply of comprehensive and timely information to shareholders and the encouragement of active participation at the AGM and EGM. The Board shall focus its efforts on the following practices to enhance the effectiveness of General Meeting:

- ensure that shareholders are given sufficient notice and time to consider the resolution(s) that will be discussed and decided at the General Meeting. The Board shall also ensure that each item of special business included in the notice is accompanied by a full explanation of the effects of the proposed resolution;

(MCCG Guidance 12.1 and MMLR Paragraph 8.27)

(MMLR Paragraph 8.27)

The Chairman shall also ensure that there is a channel of communication through the Company Secretary on feedback and queries from shareholders;
- ensure that all Directors attend General Meetings to provide opportunity for shareholders to effectively engage each Director as well as provide meaningful response to questions addressed to them;
- ensure the Chairman of the Board is the Chairman for all General Meetings; and 12.2)*

In the event issues requiring the Board's decision arise between meetings, such issues shall be resolved through circular resolution subsequent to discussions being held amongst the Board members, either via teleconference, videoconference, email, etc. in order for the Board as a whole to be apprised on such matters and obtain their view points before arriving at a decision.
